

DAY FOR THE WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY 2019 DEDICATED TO THE FIGHT AGAINST AIR POLLUTION

At the level of the planet, activities are organized in commemoration of the World Environment Day on June 5, to promote education and environmental management by promoting the protection and conservation of the environment and in the current scenario are fundamental tools in preparing for the confrontation the impacts of climate change.

Tourism constitutes one of the economic activities that generate the greatest environmental impacts due to the high consumption of water, electricity, the use of scenic resources and other natural resources, as well as the final destination of its liquid and industrial solid waste. that the World Tourism Organization has among its objectives and goals the development of Sustainable Tourism bearing in mind the duality that this commitment represents in relation to the achievement of the quality of services and customer service, as well as the environmental quality of the destination tourist

PLAN OF ACTIVITIES OF HOTEL CARISOL LOS CORALES

ACTIVITIES	DATE	PLACE
II Day of beach cleaning	5th June	Hotel beach
Start of rehabilitation actions of the coastal dune.	From June 1st to 8th	Hotel beach
Control actions to reduce emissions of polluting gases into the atmosphere	From June 1st to 8th	Departamento de mantenimiento
Celebration of environmental ephemeris	3 World Bicycle Day 5 World Environment Day 8 World Oceans Day 17 World Day against Desertification and Drought 21 Day of the Sun (summer solstice) 11. 54 am **

 Moment of the year when the Sun, in its apparent movement, passes through one of the ecliptic points farthest from the equator and in which the maximum difference in duration between day and night occurs. Annually two solstices are produced: the summer solstice 21 June and the winter solstice 22 December.

